

Male and female archetypes, universal life energy.

Healing and delaying the aging process .

A complete and high-quality work of the body's organs is similar to the well-coordinated performance of a symphony orchestra. For this, two rules must be observed :

1. Excellent musical instruments.
2. Competent conductor.

There are no other terms and conditions.

Human life expectancy depends on two rules:

1. The quality of the state of all organs.
2. Reasonable management of reproduction and distribution of vital energy potential.

There are no other terms and conditions.

This contributes to full existential cyclicity, without periodicity errors, without violating the stable functionality of energy circulation in the biostructure, which, in turn, guarantees the stability of the manifestation of the facts of the existence of the outer genotype.

In other words, a stable and initially predetermined repetition of defined phenomena in the human body contributes to the extension of its life.

The patented Immanent Therapy ® Program / Delaying the aging processes of the human body is able to tune the brain for proper management of the body's organs for the subsequent prevention of premature aging.

Therefore: disease is the stench of a diseased mind. Clear your mind - and it will stop projecting ugly, distorted images of psychosomatic imbalance throughout your body.

A well-known axiom: purity brings us closer to perfection.
